

Networking

A unique platform available to the business community of the Italian-Cypriot Chamber of Commerce. A fundamental activity to strengthen relations between Italy and Cyprus and to promote dialogue with institutions and main stakeholders.

The Italian-Cypriot Chamber of Commerce is constantly engaged in conceiving and offering its network initiatives for comparison and in-depth analysis on matters of common interest and in facilitating the development of the relationships of its business community and facilitating access to a network of high level relations.